COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Lifelong Learning URBAN GROWTH AND FORMS OF SOCIAL AND SPATIAL INEQUALITY NEL GLOBAL SOUTH: PRECARIOUS AND INFORMAL URBANIZATIONS is a Module of the Post Graduate Programme COOPERA(C)TION | KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS FOR SUSTAINABLE CITIES IN THE GLOBAL SOUTH, organised by the Laboratory of International Cooperation of Department of Architecture and Urban Studies (DASIU) of POLITECNICO DI MILANO.

The Post Graduate Programme COOPERA(C)TION aims at promoting a culture of international cooperation among students, scholars and practitioners in the fields of urban design and management, by acquiring: - the ability to understand the contexts and interact with people and organizations of the Global South; - the specific ability to share the search for solutions to face the challenges raised by radical socio-economic, environmental and cultural changes caused by globalisation, above all the rapid and massive urbanisation processes in Countries of the Global South, which raise dramatically new problems of spatial and social inequality, as well as a new and difficult environmental challenge related to the climate change.

In this context, the Lifelong Learning URBAN GROWTH AND FORMS OF SOCIAL AND SPATIAL INEQUALITY NEL GLOBAL SOUTH: PRECARIOUS AND INFORMAL URBANIZATIONS explores, through theoretical and methodological lectures, presentations of experiences and case studies and application activities, three themes:

- social and spatial inequality: concepts, forms, dilemmas
- informal settlements: approaches and policies
- urban growth in Africa: what potential for urban design and planning? studies, researches, case studies
